Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Catalogue of the Fossil Bryozoa: In the Department of Geology British Museum (Natural History), The Jurassic Bryozoa The present Catalogue, by Dr. J. W. Gregory, F.G.S., forms an acceptable addition to those previously printed, by order of the Trustees, upon the various groups of fossils, both Vertebrate and Invertebrate, preserved in this Department, and of which twenty-two volumes have already been issued, while four others are in progress. Certainly no group needed more careful and critical revision and examination than the Bryozoa; and it is hoped that Dr. Gregory will be able to complete the Catalogue of both the earlier and later forms, which at present remain to be worked out in detail.
