How do you mean that they produce unsaleable articles 1--I have recommended several of these hosiery merchants to start workrooms, and to get the people, to give them a pattern, and set them to work there; but they say that one woman will bring in a pair of stockings, and the next woman something very different, not of the same colour, or texture, or anything; and they have so much sorting that they are left with a lot of illwrought goods, and they have to provide against that by adopting the present system. That is the only excuse for it which they offer. 44. 333. I dont see why they should pay in goods for inferior articles cheaper rates than in money--But they have a greater profit to go and come upon. If an article is nominally put in to them at 1s. , and they only give 6d. for it, then without any loss to themselves they are able to sell it at 8d. , and they pay for the good and the bad at the same rate. That is their explanation of it; it is not mine. 44. 334. Would they not reject the bad articles--They do sometimes, but very seldom. They only make it an excuse for beating down the price. 44. 335. With reference to the fishing, can you give me a general picture of how the fishing is managed in Shetland, --the home fishing as...
