That the position of Queen s Town upon the immediate border of the Colony, at a point where, in the event of native disturbances, extensive military operations would in all probability have to be directed from, together with its importance in a commercial point of view, is such as to make it very desirable to have communication with it by means of the telegraph; and the Committee have reason to believe that the revenue to be derived from the transmission of messages to and from Queen s Town would be equal, in amount at least, to that derived from any other town along the existing lines, Port Elizabeth excepted. A telegraph from Port Elizabeth to Cape Recif, and one from Simon s Town to Cape Point, could be constructed for about 1,400, and one from Graham s Town to Port Alfred for 1,700, - and the annual cost of maintenance and working of the three would amount to about 250. It could not be expected, the Committee considers, that much income would be obtained for the transmission of messages to and from the lighthouses; but it would doubtless be for many reasons desirable to have telegraphic communication with them, when the Colony is...
