Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Running is like life. There s a starting line. There s a finish line. Try not to trip in between. Josh Baker is the fastest high school runner in Michigan. His goal? Run fast enough to escape the factories and his frigid existence in the northernmost thread of the Michigan mitten. And to take Lindsay, his love of four years, with him when he goes. But sometimes God has other plans. Sometimes the course to the finish line takes unexpected turns. The finish line moves. Or disappears altogether. When Josh nearly loses his life in a car accident one snowy night, his life hurtles in a new direction. The course will take him outside of this world before returning him to unravel the choices he s made. Because when you live in Cherry Hill, where this world and the next are separated by a single prayer, a breath of frosty air, or a last heartbeat, you should expect the unexpected. Book 1 of the Cherry Hill Series - Teen Romance with a Supernatural Twist.
