My position was rather unique, for I had no personal quarrel with nor enmity against the Matabeles. I was out in South Africa hunting with a friend, and a very good time we had too. It may interest some of the audience to see a photograph I took with my kodak of a bag we brought in one morning - I will presently produce a view of it two lions and eight bucks; besides which we brought in that same day two more bucks and a wolf, which is the name given to the spotted hyena out there. This bag was shot a couple of days from the Lundi river. I take this opportunity to thank the Eastman Photographic Materials Co., Ltd., for the careful manner in which they have made the lantern slides from the negatives of the No....
