Excerpt: . portion of existence can supply events, which place the persons of the drama in those varied and contrasting situations, which shew the characters in different points of view, as acting under the influence of dissimilar circumstances and passions. Mr Hodson had studied Shakespeare so little as to observe that, finely as he has written, his plays would have possessed still greater superiority had he observed the rules of Aristotle. All who feel Shakespeare s excellence, and examine the causes of his infinitely surpassing powers, respecting all other dramatic writers, Greek, Roman, French, German, and English, in the representation of life, of the passions, and manners, will feel that his disdain of those rules is not an error to be pardoned on the score of his poetic and characteristic recompenses, but one powerfully operative means by which he acquired his confessed transcendence. Could he...
