Scene - The sitting-room of a small apartment. As the occupants have just moved in, the pictures are leaning against the walls. A chair is just right of center. Another smaller chair is a little left. A box of books is about center, upstage. A small table is up left, in the angle of the two doors. One of these, leading to the hall, is in the left wall; the other, leading to the adjoining room, is in the rear wall, near the angle where it joins the left. Other chairs and furnishings are arranged in disorderly groups. At Rise - Irene, a pretty little woman with a decided manner and personality, is bending over the box of books. Jim, with his overcoat on, enters through the door at back. His hat and gloves are on table up left. He is a young business man, well groomed and of pleasing appearance. Jim. I hate to leave you to do all this. Irene. (Straightening up.) Oh. don t you worry about...
