Crystal Publishing, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Global humanity in crisis! From the full spectrum of global media, the facts bombard us continually: Pollution, poverty, disease, ethnic savagery, tribal butchery, increasing crime and human rights violations and financial meltdown. Despairing global societies struggle to cope with this multi-faceted and socially-destructive tsunami . Despite that obvious reality, we all still want the world to be our way and all answers to be our answers. Ludicrous, and bordering on insanity; yet that is precisely how it now is . The truly ludicrous notion among many religions that God causes everything to happen brought forth perhaps the ultimate in stupid comment when some of the Jewish survivors of the Nazi death camps declared that God was dead because of their experience. Do we therefore believe that God built the death camps and set up the Nazi regime? Of course not. Stupid in the extreme, yet such is human religious thinking. Relatively few in number, The Spiritual Laws take no account of religious, cultural, scientific or even political determinations and proclamations. Neither do they take into account whether or not humankind is even aware of them. They simply are. Only with the knowledge of them and thus how they work in their flawless individual and collective outworking, can earthly humanity ever hope to understand not just why the world is in crisis, but why concerted international efforts by so many well-meaning groups find it difficult to effect long-term fundamental and sweeping change for the better. Thus, global societies continue to unravel despite such efforts. The perfection of Creation-Law offers us the mechanism of automatic and self-acting immutable Law in which parameters we, through our free-will attribute, bring upon...
