Baker Publishing Group, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 211 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. The Honest, Loving Answers Children Need to Hear What should you say when your five-year-old asks about his dying grandma? Or when your seven-year-old wonders if the devil is real? Or when the sixth graders in your Sunday school class are talking about a tragedy they heard about on the news? When it comes to the dark and tragic aspects of our world, it can be hard to know what to say and how much. Mother/daughter team Elyse Fitzpatrick and Jessica Thompson will carefully walk you through difficult conversations, one topic at a time. Speaking from personal experience, informed by child development research, these two moms offer practical insights and age-appropriate guidance. Talking about tough topics may not be as hard as you think, and, more important, you ll see how these conversations can lead to meaningful discussions of God s unchanging goodness. I love this book! I will recommend it again and again. It is street-level theology for children that drips with the gospel of Jesus Christ. Parents, read it, live with it, share it daily with your children, and not only will they learn and grow, you will, too. --Paul David Tripp, president, Paul Tripp Ministries This is a scripturally rooted and profoundly wise guide for parents who desire to weave gospel truths into the answers to their kids toughest questions. I highly recommend this book. It takes the pressure off of parents to have all the perfect answers, reveals the radical nature of God s grace, and weaves the scarlet thread of redemption through every answer. --Jeannie Cunnion, MSW, author of Parenting the Wholehearted Child These hard questions aren t random--children wonder about these issues, and they...
