Now, when I want to hire a man, I always look out for one who has no friends in this part of the country. When his time is about out--and I never have any money for him between whiles--when his time is about out, I trump up some dreadful charge against him, threaten him with the law, etc. The outcome is the man is so frightened he is glad to get away--wages or no wages. Our girls, when we have any, we manage in the same way. Oh, it s easy, after you learn how, and those fellows eat so much anyway, they don t earn more than their board. Various other ways that were dark and tricks that were vain were recited for Gabriel s education. But one night, the light of a burning barn showed to this worse than Heathen Chinees that in some of these games two could play. As the stress of poverty became more and more heavy, he brooded over these confidences and temptations of his rich neighbor until his mind was so clouded with melancholy that he hardly knew the right from the wrong and almost lost faith in the justice of God or the integrity of man. Seeing her father s distress of mind, his oldest daughter often asked herself the question, what can I do to help? She knew that school...
