Walcott, Late of the 30th U. S. Colored Troops The annals of no nation or epoch record more of self-sacrificing devotion, conscientious fidelity, heroism, endurance, patience, and resignation than have illustrated the bloody struggle of our age in America. In the great civil war through which the nation has just passed, the fruits of the culture of Christian institutions have been manifested in many forms. By their chastened enthusiasm, their heroism in camp and battle-field, their patience in suffering, and their sublime faith in death, the Christian youth of the country have been the inspiration of noble deeds and the example for comrades.
