Thomas Mercer, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 208 x 137 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. When former B-movie actress Maureen Haines s barn burns down, she fears the worst: her scientist husband, Gary, has finally gone too far with his crazy experiments and it has cost him his life. But after firefighters fail to uncover Gary s body amid the ruins, Maureen s panic turns to bewilderment. It seems Gary has vanished. But why? Within hours of the fire, Maureen has another problem on her hands: the media. Because nothing brings out the vultures like a former celebrity s personal crisis. The cameras descend in droves, led by none other than Steven F. Miller III, a tireless paparazzo and Maureen s former lover. She s convinced this nightmare can t possibly get worse until she begins receiving mysterious threats. Suddenly Maureen must face the possibility that there is something bigger and more dangerous than a tabloid scoop at stake. She knows only Miller can help her uncover the truth. But at what cost?.
