

Faces from the Past: Forgotten People of North America

By James M. Deem

HMH Books for Young Readers. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Hardcover. 160 pages. Dimensions: 9.5in. x 8.5in. x 0.7in. Once, no humans lived on the continent of North America; then they began to journey, the first migrants arriving perhaps 15, 000 to 20, 000 years ago. When a skeleton from long-ago centuries is discovered, scientists want to study it for information about the person's life and death, about her or his time and place in history. Sometimes artists are asked to reconstruct faces from the past using copies of their skulls. Then these nameless, unknown people can be brought back to life--remembered, and honored. Now, when their skeletons are discovered, their stories can be told. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Hardcover.

Reviews

This pdf will be worth buying. Better than never, though I am quite late in starting reading this one. I am easily able to get an enjoyment of reading through a published book.

This is basically the finest publication I actually have gone through till now. We have read and I also am confident that I am going to likely read through again once more in the foreseeable future. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
